Mr. Welsey J. Liebeler
Newfane, Vermont

Dear Mr. Liebeler,

I did not give Mr. Griffin a complimentary copy of my book. I did sent one to each of the members of the Commission and a few in the executive branches and Congress, but I just could not afford to include the staff. I sent one to Mr. Rankin, however. We have gone deep into debt on this project.

We have not been making a handling charge, so the entire cost, including postage, is $5.05, and we would appreciate a check.

After reading WHITEWASH - and I hope your time and interest permits a careful reading - I would like very much to hear from you. I also hope you will then be able to agree with the essential conclusion, that the expected job has not been done and must be, entirely in public and preferably by Congress.

It is my belief that in crimes of this sort, especially with the assassination of an American President, it is impermissable that any subsential questions it is within the power of men to answer remain either unasked or unanswered. I do hope that you will agree with this also.

The address I had been given for Mr. McCloy is apparently wrong. Can you give his his home address?

References to you are on pages 25,45,48-9, 115-7,139,147-9. Especially after reading the Altgens material would I like to hear from you. The photograph on pp.202-3 is still not the entire negative but it is the version that shows most that I was able to obtain. I have seen more on both sides.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
